Nature of Noncompliance

On February 22, 2022, David Staples was arrested by officers of the St. Louis Metropolitan Police Department (SLMPD) for Felon in Possession of a Firearm (felony), Possession of a Controlled Substance (felony), Resisting Arrest for a Felony (felony), and an outstanding warrant for Resisting Arrest (felony).

According to SLMPD records (Incident Report 21-006368), on February 12, 2021, officers observed a black four door vehicle parked and running and positioned their vehicle behind the parked vehicle. The officers observed a male get behind the vehicle and begin to push the vehicle. A computer inquiry revealed that the plates were registered to a Ford Truck. Officers activated their emergency lights and siren and the male pushing the vehicle stopped. Officers approached the vehicle and identified the driver as David Staples. Additionally, Staples provided an address of 1400 Belt. Officers inquired if there were weapons in the vehicle, to which Staples replied, "Not that I know of" and also reported that he was scared. Officers instructed Staples to exit the vehicle. Staples reached down and closed the vehicle door and stated, "You know what it is," and sped away from the scene in the vehicle. Staples fled at a high rate of speed and violated a stop sign, creating a substantial risk for other drivers and pedestrians. The unidentified male at the scene fled on foot. Officers confirmed Staples's identity using his driver's license photo. David Staples was entered as a wanted person for Resisting Arrest (felony).

On March 11, 2021, this officer interviewed Staples regarding this violation. Staples reported he did not know anything about the incident. This officer notified Staples that he was wanted for Resisting Arrest by SLMPD. This officer instructed Staples that he must turn himself in to the SLMPD. Staples failed to turn himself in or contact SLMPD regarding the wanted person.

According to SLMPD records (Incident Report 22-007403), On February 22, 2022, officers on patrol observed a silver Ford Taurus violate a stop sign. Officers conducted a traffic stop and the driver, David Staples, immediately exited the vehicle. Staples produced his driver's license and submitted to a pat search. A computer inquiry revealed a traffic warrant as well as a wanted for Felony Fleeing. While attempting to place Staples in handcuffs, he fled on foot. Officers deployed a taser; however, Staples continued to flee. Officers deployed a second taser cartridge which also failed to stop Staples. Officers continued to pursue Staples and were able to place him on the ground and secure him in handcuffs. A search of the Ford Fusion revealed a brown and black colored Taurus make, model G2C, 9mm firearm. The weapon was loaded with one live round in the chamber and 12 additional rounds in the magazine. A computer inquiry of the firearm revealed the weapon was not reported as stolen. Staples was conveyed to the South Patrol Division. Officer's attempted to search Staples; however, he refused to open his mouth. Staples then partially parted his lips and officers observed a white chunky/runny substance begin to drop out of the sides of his mouth. Staples reported that he swallowed crack cocaine and collapsed onto the floor. Staples was conveyed by ambulance to Barnes Jewish Hospital. Upon arrival at the hospital, officers observed an additional clear plastic baggie of a hard white substance, consistent with crack cocaine in Staples' right sock. Staples was advised he was being charged, at large, with Felon in Possession of a Firearm, Possession of a Controlled Substance, and Felony Resisting. Additionally, Staples was issued a citation for violating a stop sign per ticket No. 211257953.

On February 23, 2022, Staples contacted this officer after admission to a psychiatric unit at a hospital following his arrest on February 22, 2022. Staples admitted to possessing crack cocaine for his personal use and from fleeing from law enforcement officers on foot relative to the arresting incident.

A computer inquiry revealed the license plates were registered to a 1995 Dodge Ram. Officers activated their emergency lights and parked behind the vehicle. Officers made contact with the driver, David Staples, and the passenger, who both voluntarily provided pedigree information. While officers were walking back to their vehicle, Staples put the vehicle in drive and accelerated away from the officers at a high rate of speed. The officers returned to their vehicle and attempted to follow the Dodge from a safe distance. The officers observed the vehicle taillights swaying back and forth. Staples lost control of the vehicle, drove onto an empty parking lot, struck a concrete streetlight, struck a fence, and then came to a rest in the middle of Cote Brillante. Staples exited the vehicle and fled on foot. An officer drew his department issued taser, pointed it at Staples, and issued a verbal command to lay on the ground. Staples complied with the order and was taken into custody.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation: It is respectfully recommended the original petition be amended with the aforementioned information highlighted in bold print. This officer continues to recommend Staples' term of supervised release be revoked.

Due to the seriousness of the new felonious conduct and ongoing drug use, it does not appear that Staples is amendable to community supervision at this time and he presents a safety risk to the community.

The Supervised Release should be revoked.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
